We Salute Ed Love

The 1998 Michigan Jazz Festival is proudly dedicated to Ed Love who has devoted over 45 years of his life to radio and jazz music. Since 1983, Ed has hosted The Ed Love Program on WDET-FM 101.9, Detroit Public Radio, 7-10 p.m., Monday through Friday.

Ed's love affair with jazz is obvious by his choice of artists showcased on his popular show. He plays what he wants, having freedom to choose and refuses to succumb to today's trends and tomorrow's fashions. "I want my audience to have enough confidence in me and my appreciation of jazz that people will say they like what Ed Love is playing."

He worked as a mail carrier in order to have a financial base while spinning records on WCHD (later WJZZ), WJLB and WQRS.

"My program is not for everyone," says Love. "It's for those rare individuals who are as in love with jazz as I am, and for those who want to learn as they listen."

He hosted the award-winning and nationally syndicated program, The Evolution of Jazz from 1988-1994. It was heard on 115 public radio stations from coast to coast. We need it again!

Ed Love has received numerous honors, including The Spirit of Detroit Award, The Great Seal of Michigan (from the State House of Representatives), the Montreux-Detroit Jazz Festival's Lifelong Achievement Award, and was inducted into the Legends of Jazz International Hall of Fame.

The Michigan Jazz Festival salutes Ed Love for his relentless efforts to promote and preserve jazz and his willingness to showcase local musicians along with those more widely recognized. He always helps promote jazz happenings and when he announces an event, the phones begin to ring and tickets begin to sell. He has a large, respectful radio audience.

About the Sponsors

The U.S. Recording Companies furnish funds in part for the instrumental music for these performances through the Music Performance Trust Funds, as arranged by Local No. 5, American Federation of Musicians.

Morry Cohen Since developer Morry Cohen's Somerset North opened, he has devoted much of his time to charitable organizations such as Variety, Senior Citizens, Hospices of Southeastern Michigan and most recently to the Child Abuse and Neglect Council. Morry and Margo Cohen's generous contributions to keeping the music playing are significant, including Michigan Opera Theater, Orchestra Hall and the Michigan Jazz Festival. They match the funds provided by the Music Performance Trust Funds, Detroit Federation of Musicians-Local 5, making this festival's fundraising much easier. Thank you, Margo and Morry!
