

MICHIGAN *Jazz*TM FESTIVAL -1997-

Sunday, July 20, 1997 ■ 12:00-10:30pm

Botsford Inn

28000 Grand River, Farmington Hills

We Salute EMIL MORO

This year's festival is dedicated to the memory of Emil Moro, whose foresight and vision gave birth to the idea of having this festival in 1995 at Freedom Hill.

Emil died just three days before the 1996 festival. The overwhelming success of that event would have pleased Emil, proving that such a festival was needed in the suburbs and that his vision had become a reality.

Music was his passion. He taught music for 36 years in the East Detroit public schools before retiring in 1990. His private lesson students number in the hundreds, as did the musicians he befriended through his store, Detroit Wayne Music Studio, which his wife Dorothy has kept in operation.

As co-leader of the Austin-Moro Band with Lanny Austin, he became more widely known in the Metro Detroit area. The band represented Detroit at the 1973 Montreux Jazz Festival, helping build a liaison between Montreux and Detroit. The late Don Lupp was singularly responsible for taking Detroit area bands to Switzerland and establishing the now successful Montreux-Detroit Jazz Festival.

Emil served on the Executive Board of Directors for the Detroit Federation of Musicians, Local 5, where he was a faithful member for 40 years.

Thanks, Emil. We're sure you've already formed a band including maybe even a bit of jazz harp!! We miss you.

Emil's band is performing today 2:15-3:45 on the Moro/Cohen stage under the direction of saxophonist George Benson.

About the Sponsors

The U.S. Recording Companies furnish funds in part for the instrumental music for these performances through the Music Performance Trust Funds, as arranged by Local No. 5, American Federation of Musicians.

Morry Cohen Since developer Morry Cohen's Somerset North opened last August, he has devoted most of his time to charitable organizations such as Variety, Senior Citizens and Hospices of Southeastern Michigan. Morry's generous contributions to music, jazz in particular, is heralded. Morry has sponsored many music scholarships and recently sent a young 12-year-old musician and his family to Prague where he performed with the Czech Symphony. Morry matches the funds provided by the Music Performance Trust Funds, Detroit Federation of Musicians, Local 5 for this festival. Without his help, we wouldn't be here today. Thanks, Morry. We love you!

Jack Daniel's "A Square Shooter and a Square Bottle." From 1866-1895, Jack Daniel sold his whiskey in barrels, kegs and stoneware jugs. Mr. Daniel's nephew, Lem Matlow, persuaded him to sell whiskey in glass bottles. He agreed to look at samples. None of the standard bottles impressed Jack until he reached for the final sample produced by Alton Glass Company in Illinois. It was a radical design, new and untested: a square bottle with a fluted neck. "A square shooter like you, Mr. Daniel, should have a bottle to match." It was a plus that no other whiskey in the world was bottled in square glass. Jack figured his charcoal mellowed whiskey was different, so the bottle should be different too. We're pleased that Lem Matlow was able to convince his uncle to use glass bottles. Tennessee whiskey Alcohol 41-43% volume, (80-86 Proof). Distilled and bottled by Jack Daniel's Distillery, Lynchburg (Pop. 361), Tennessee.

Southeastern Michigan Jazz Association (SEMJA), produces a monthly SEMJA Update, profiling jazz events and musicians and a very thorough calendar of both on-going and special events. SEMJA is dedicated to the education, performance and furtherance of jazz.
